The 2017 Kia Corthron Season begins with the timely FORCE CONTINUUM. An African-American police officer struggles with the contradictions of his race and profession while confronting the black community he is bound to protect and being haunted by his cop father's violent death. A jagged, precarious journey whereby all gradually grasp that understanding comes not just through seeing others but hearing. Michael Aaron Pogue makes his Eclipse directorial debut.

MEGASTASIS (A WORLD PREMIERE)

Directed by Aaron Todd Douglas

July 13 - August 20, 2017

Previews July 13, 14 and 15
(Opening July 16th & 18th)

at The Athenaeum Theatre

2936 N. Southport Ave. Chicago

Thurs - Sat at 7:30pm; Sun at 2:00pm

Nineteen-year-old Tray loves his grandfather and loves caring for his infant daughter, hoping one day to marry the baby's mother. But in the War on Drugs, a joint at a party becomes a major military provocation, and Tray unwittingly falls into a black hole of bewilderment, rearranging his plans and his life. Workshopped through New Works Brooklyn at Brooklyn College and New York Theatre Workshop.

BREATH, BOOM

Directed by Mignon McPherson Stewart

November 2 - December 17, 2017

Previews November 2, 3 and 4
(Opening November 5th & 7th)

at The Athenaeum Theatre

2936 N. Southport Ave. Chicago

Thurs - Sat at 7:30pm; Sun at 2:00pm

The 2017 Kia Corthron Season concludes with BREATH, BOOM. A startling acute portrayal of Prix, a hardened female gang member in New York, whose only escape from her narrow, abusive life is an obsession with creating the perfect fireworks display. The play is based heavily on research into the lives of young women who choose to lead violent lives on the streets. It captures the tough and often poetic language that people who inhabit a world cut off from normal existence use to both mask and portray a perilous existence. Mignon McPherson Stewart makes her Eclipse directorial debut.
